

Isegen to grow Durban plant

Isegen South Africa, a manufacturer of food acids and raw materials for the plastics industry, will spend R45 million to expand its Durban plant's annual food acid production by 37 percent to 13 500 tons, to cater for global demand.

Published on the web by Business Report on July 11, 2006.

---

© Business Report 2006. All rights reserved.